Jewish Torah Thought

"The Halacha says that even a bar mitzvah boy who cannot read Hebrew should be called to the Torah and make the blessings over it... the Torah scroll is the Written Law. No one understands it, even if they think they do. There are so many layers and secrets to the Written Torah that even if we can read it, each one of us is like the illiterate bar mitzvah boy. He knows that this is G-d's Torah, his rightful inheritance and, therefore, truly honors it."
